

MEMBERSHIP APPLICATION

Columbia University alumni, family, and friends are eligible to join the Columbia University Club of New York. Members of the Columbia University Club will receive Club communications, have access to exclusive events, and can participate on Club committees.

The Columbia University Club of New York is an affiliate of the Penn Club. Clubhouse amenities are available to all Columbia University Club members who complete the Penn Club membership process.

Below is a common application for membership in the Columbia University Club of New York and the Penn Club. The Club membership year is July 1 to June 30.

Membership in the Columbia University Club and the Penn Club is free for the Class of 2018 graduating seniors.

COMPLETING THE GRADUATING SENIOR APPLICATION

- Please provide all of the information requested on the common application form. The Penn Club requires that you provide your Social Security number and a credit card number. Credit cards are not charged unless house charges go unpaid for an extended period of time or automatic payment is specifically requested.
- Please indicate if you are making application to the Columbia University Club or to both clubs by checking the appropriate box. This will allow the membership staff to create an invoice for the correct dues amount.
- On the 'affiliation' line, please indicate that you are a Graduating Senior.
- Your 'year' is 2018.
- Complete as much of the personal and professional information as you can. Please remember to keep us posted on address and employment changes.
- Spouse/Life Partner applications are accepted from graduating seniors. Spouse membership dues are not waived.
- Palestra Fitness Center membership is complementary for the first year. No Fitness Center dues will be applied to your account unless you continue your membership into 2019-2020.
- Credit card information is required. Credit cards are not charged unless house charges go unpaid for an extended period of time or you choose to authorize automatic payment or membership renewal.
- Please note that you are not required to authorize automatic membership renewal.
- All applications are reviewed by the Columbia University Club Membership Committee and/or by the Penn Club. Information on the application goes through a verification process. This process can take up to two weeks.
- You will be notified by email of acceptance. Final confirmation is required to complete the application process.
- You must be 21 years of age or older to join the Penn Club
